Happy Mother's Day

Mother's Day is on May 10th. There is no question that what moms do for their children is truly remarkable.

But, that only really registered with me fully and with true clarity after I became a dad. The sheer abilities of a mother are astounding. They birth children. They breastfeed their children. They get virtually no sleep when their children get sick. They are the ones the kids go to first whenever anything is wrong. Then, when additional children come into the fold, they then have even more unending responsibilities. They really never get a break.

They are superheroes because they are able to perform things that are extraordinary, and they do these things very naturally. I am supremely grateful to the women in my life because they are the foundational centerpieces of my life. I am grateful to my wife Rory, who goes above and beyond each day so that our kids have everything they need to thrive. I am grateful to my daughter Alice, because being a "girl-dad" is more special than words can describe. I am grateful to my Mom, who raised me herself and through it all, gave me everything I needed. I am grateful to my mother-in-law, Joanne who has opened up her arms to me from the moment I met her.

Happy Mother's Day to all you moms. We see you. What you do is amazing and appreciated. ■

RORY'S RECIPES: Quarantine Guacamole

We are all stuck at home and the entire family is non-stop snacking! One thing we love is any chip & dip snack combo, which makes this guacamole an absolute favorite! It is a very simple recipe but so yummy. Also, my guacamole never has cilantro in it, which I know is controversial, but I cannot stand the taste!

INGREDIENTS:

- 4-5 ripe avocados
- 2-3 cloves of minced garlic (depending how much bite you want)
- 1/2 fresh lemon
- Salt & pepper

DIRECTIONS:

- 1 Mash the avocados with a fork. As you mash them add the juice of the lemon and a pinch of salt & pepper.
- 2 Lastly, add the minced garlic in as you mash everything up. I prefer it to be smooth but you can keep it chunky if preferred.
- 3 I also tend to be a guacamole purist, but many people enjoy the addition of red onion or diced tomatoes! (Just please never cilantro!)

Never Trust Insurance Company Adjusters

only come back to haunt the claim. Never give a recorded statement because it only helps them, and not you. This applies not only to automobile accident claims, but to all claims.

Second, they act very, very nice to you. They want to earn your trust. Don't fall for it. This is all designed to convince you to settle for as little as possible. They may offer you $ 500, or $ 1000 to settle. They will present you with a release to sign which, in exchange for the money, closes out the case, forever. Don't ever sign a release without speaking with an attorney first.

Third, they will tell you not to hire a lawyer. They will say there is no reason to hire a lawyer for your case. Of course they don't want you to hire a lawyer. Because if you do hire a lawyer, they will end up paying you full and fair settlement compensation for your case. Never listen when they say you don't need a lawyer. ■

ALWAYS REMAIN STRONG

As I write this in early April, the COVID-19 pandemic has been completely upending all of our daily lives. We are required to stay home. We are required to stay away from other people when we go outside. Many of us are concerned about getting sick from the virus. Many of us wonder if we have the virus and don't even know it. Times like these can easily make people feel hopeless. Times like this test our resolve. No matter what you do in extreme times like this, always stay strong and focused. Control what you can control, and accept that which you cannot control. Hang in there. We'll come out of this better than before.

NEVER Trust Insurance Company Adjusters

by Chris Earley

*If you have been involved in a serious car accident, you know the aftermath can be stressful. You may be dealing with getting your car fixed, or with trying to get your medical bills paid, or getting appropriate medical care, or other accident-related issues. While you go through this process, it is important to remember one very important thing: don't trust an insurance company.

They Are Chiefly Concerned With Limiting Your Rights As Much As Possible

It is important to know that if someone injured you in a car crash, that person's insurance company wants to settle with you for as little money as possible. The reason is because once you hire a lawyer, the insurance company will have to pay you a fair settlement. That runs contrary to their ultimate objective: collecting policy holder premiums, rather than paying out money to deserving claimants. To do this, they try a few different things.

They will try early and often to take a recorded statement from you.

Don't ever give a recorded statement to an insurance company. There is a reason they want to take your statement, and for it to be recorded. They want to ask you questions that seem harmless, but which ultimately,
